

Attention FARMERS

Is WHS on your list for 2023?

If so, keep reading!

Cotton Australia has partnered with Bec Fing from House Paddock Training and Consulting to bring you the

WHAT, WHY AND HOW OF

All made possible by the National Farm Safety Education Fund

This series of webinars is open to any farmer, irrespective of industry.

3 short, sharp sessions across 3 consecutive days covering the following

DATE	TITLE	TOPICS COVERED
Wednesday 1 March 12-1pm	The what, why and who of WHS	What are we legally required to do? Who has to do what? What about contractors? Audit your current WHS!
Thursday 2 March 12-1pm	Making your team safe... A practical spin on the "how"	Inductions, Training Emergency Preparedness Getting the team on board
Friday 3 March 12-1pm	Making your farm a safe place to work	Risk management, Chemicals Workshops & Machinery

Each session will be supported with templates to use in your business!

Registrations required

https://us02web.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZlsc-ivrjooHdxyDEw6PJYEd_d5MAPRZ787
If you are unsure if you are able to attend, register to receive the recording and templates!

After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the meeting.

Attend all meetings to qualify for a free 1 on 1 session with WHS consultant Bec Fing!